A Poem for this Sunday

Martha and Mary

by Annie Johnson Flint

Mary was busy and hurried,
Serving the Friend divine,
Cleansing the cups and the platters,
Bringing the bread and the wine;
But Martha was careful and anxious,
Fretted in thought and in word,
She had no time to be learning
While she was serving the Lord,
For Martha was "cumbered" with serving
Martha was "troubled" with "things"—
Those that would pass with the using—
She was forgetting her wings.

But Mary was quiet and peaceful,
Learning to love and to live,
Mary was learning His precepts,
Mary was letting Him give—
Give of the riches eternal,
Treasures of mind and of heart;
Learning the mind of the Master,
Choosing the better part.
Do we ever labour at serving
Till voices grow fretful and shrill,
Forgetting how to be loving,
Forgetting how to be still?

Next Sunday 24 July marks the World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly.

This is a chance not only to remember and honour our own grandparents, living and dead, but also to show gratitude to all the seniors who enrich our parish communities and parish life so much. They will all be remembered and prayed for in our parish Masses next Sunday.

The Funeral Mass for Gerry McGuigan RIP will take place in St. Mary's, Forebank on Monday 25 July at 10.30am.

Ordination Thanks: Thank you to everyone who helped in any way to make the recent Ordination Liturgy in the Cathedral go smoothly. Hours of work went in behind the scenes to ensure that the Liturgy was a fitting celebration, and that all the guests were welcomed and given hospitality. Thanks to all the welcomers, the MCs and servers, flower arrangers, those who prepared the vestments for the priests and tidied up afterwards, the Diocesan Choir, all who served in the hall, those who donated sandwiches and homebaking and those who helped in any way.

Father Malcolm is taking a holiday now, then he will be in Paris on a course during August and will join us in the Cathedral during the month of September, before returning Rome to complete his studies.

Other Diocesan Clergy appointments

Canon Mark Cassidy has been appointed as the new Rector of the seminary, the Scots' College in Rome. This is a major appointment of the Bishops in Scotland and Mark will bring his great gifts and talents to bear on the training of our future priests. We wish him all God's blessings and graces as he takes up this post. He will do a great job, but his absence from our Diocese will be keenly felt by many, for all the work he does, and his steadfast friendship and support towards myself and the other priests will be missed.

Father Ninian Doohan has been appointed to a parish in the Archdiocese of Saint Andrews and Edinburgh, and so the parishes of St Patrick's and St Pius X will soon have a new parish priest. Ninian has also been the co-ordinating chaplain for the hospitals, so one of the other priests will take on this role too. We wish Ninian well in his new appointment.

Wedding Congratulations

I look forward to celebrating the Marriage of Sian Munro and Terry Gray this coming Tuesday 19 July in St Peter and St Paul's Church. Congratulations to them both and our prayers for many happy years of married life.

Thanks to all who support the 200 Club.

Work on the Cathedral gutters and gull deterrents will begin next Monday 25 July. There may be some disruption at the entrance to the Cathedral for a couple of days, but we shall do our best to minimise this.

The church roof and the house roof at Our Lady of Good Counsel have recently been inspected and I await word for any necessary work to begin. I've not forgotten the installation of a handrail going up to the lectern in Our Lady of Good Counsel and hopefully this will be in place soon.

The Organ at Our Lady of Victories will be tuned and worked on this coming Tuesday. The guys from Forth Organs need into the Church at 10.45am, so Mass will be at 10am this Tuesday in St Mary's. We will have tea and coffee in the priests' dining room after Tuesday Mass - everyone welcome.
