Sunday afternoon services
in Eastertide

On the Sundays of the Easter Season there will be Evening Prayer and Benediction at 4pm in one of our Churches.

Please come along and join us if you can, and keep the Sundays of the season holy. This Sunday's afternoon service will take place in
St Mary, Our Lady of Victories Church, Forebank Road.

Why not make a little pilgrimage and join us this Sunday afternoon?

The Story continues during Eastertime . . . . . In The Acts of the Apostles

The Greek traveller stood bewildered in the Jerusalem crowd. All around him, Jews from many nations milled excitedly and pointed to a group in the centre of the square. “You are drunk” shouted someone at the group. Then the Greek heard one of the group reply: ‘We are not drunk. We are stunned with joy because we have had an experience like the one Israel had at Sinai.’

The Greek visitor wondered what he meant by that. Then the big man raised his hand for silence and the crowd fell quiet. ‘Do not judge by appearances. Listen! At Sinai God called Israel to be a community of faith. God called our ancestors to belong to him. He called them to be a light for other nations, that is, to help other people to know God.’

“I agree with the first point” a Pharisee said, “ but I don’t believe God wanted us to be missionaries”.

‘My friend, you have forgotten the meaning of the story of Jonah’ the big man continued. 4 ‘He was sent on a missionary trip to Nineveh. Remember he resisted the call at first until God overcame him. Jonah was an example of how Israel too resisted that call.

“Who is that man?”,
the traveller asked of no one in particular.

“His name is Peter” a tradesman replied.

“What has all this to do with Sinai?”,
the Pharisee asked.

‘At Sinai there was a glimpse, the shadow of a promise, but the real thing has happened now because of Jesus, who died and rose again. Because of Him and His Spirit, we really can be a community of faith and a light for other people.’

“How can we have this experience?”

“Go on tell us more . . . .”

This is why we hear the Acts of the Apostles during these Easter weeks....

There is a Children's Liturgy of the Word for this Sunday on the Cathedral Facebook page.

I shall celebrate Vespers—the Evening Prayer of the Church—on Sunday afternoon at 4pm in St Mary's, Forebank, and there will be Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The text will be on the Cathedral Facebook page, but do join us in person if you can.

You should leave a message stating your name, the date and time of the Mass, the church you wish to attend and number of households. If you don't hear back from my booking team, your booking has been successful.

A reminder too that bookings for Sunday Masses close online and on the phone at 5pm on Friday – calls to book Mass for that weekend made after this time will not be registered. You can however still call to cancel a booking. This is so the booking team have sufficient time to prepare the attendance lists for each church.

My booking team will release Mass bookings in future weeks for the Cathedral, Our Lady of Good Counsel and Our Lady of Victories as follows:

Weekends of 1/2 and 8/9 May:	Monday 26 April from 6pm
Weekends of 15/16 and 22/23 May:	Monday 10 May from 6pm

Attendance at Sunday Mass/Creation of Waiting Lists

You'll maybe recall that I recently asked that parishioners at the Cathedral booked for their preferred Mass every other Sunday. This was to try and allow as many of you as possible to attend, particularly at the 11am Mass which is always full, with worshippers often unable to get booked. Thank you to all of you who have helped in this way by either attending every other Sunday at 11am, going to a quieter Mass e.g. 4pm on Saturday or coming to Mass during the week. Remember, the Sunday obligation remains suspended for the time being.

If a parishioner finds that their preferred Mass is full when they try to book online, then they should send a text to the Mass booking phone – 07561 699557 with the following information:

WAITING LIST

Your Name

Date & time of Mass you have been unable to book

Contact Number

Attendance lists will be reviewed by my booking team and should spaces be available then they will contact you.

As a result, my booking team may have to cancel bookings made on consecutive Sundays. If this happens, you'll receive an automated email cancelling your seats. By trialling this system, and with your co-operation, I'm hopeful that we will be able to maximise attendance at our Sunday Masses.

Church Capacities – Under 12s

Following queries regarding capacity in our churches and children attending Masses and Liturgies, I can confirm that children under twelve years of age (and indeed under five years) do indeed count towards our overall capacity of 50.
