Fourth Sunday in Eastertide

26 April 2026

*Next Sunday: Fifth Sunday in Eastertide
Year of Matthew (A)*

Dear Friends and Parishioners,

I invite you, if you are able to join, with Bishop Andrew and myself and the Diocesan Synod Group in a

DIOCESAN EVENT ON OUR JOURNEYING TOGETHER

on Saturday 9th May at The Pastoral Centre, St Mary's Forebank Hall, from 10am until 1.45pm
(Refreshments will be served from 9.45am)

A Festival of Synodality

We will listen to the well-known writer, papal biographer and Tablet correspondent Austen Ivereigh, as he presents live online the topic

*'Missionary disciples
in a synodal Church:
the future of faith
in these Islands'*

How does the Church thrive in an age where it is no longer supported by culture? Pope Francis and now Pope Leo have called us to embrace an "apostolic way of being Christian, capable of evangelising our age of belief." There will also be an opportunity for questions and answers and some time for small group discussions.

The event will open with prayer followed by a presentation by Maureen Ruddy: Synodality: Our journey so far.

This Sunday I will celebrate the Vigil Mass in Broughty Ferry and the 9.30am Mass in St Patrick's and both Cathedral Masses. Bishop Andrew has now embarked on his Eastertide round of Parish Confirmations. Bishop Stephen will celebrate the 9.45am Mass in Our Lady of Good Counsel and Canon Andrew Clark will celebrate the 11.30am in St Mary's, Forebank.

Diocesan Structures: Following a request from the Holy See, the Bishops of Scotland have been invited to reflect on how the structures of the Church in our country can best serve her mission in the years ahead. Two possible pathways are being proposed for careful discernment: developing deeper cooperation and the sharing of resources across dioceses within our present structures, or the merging of some dioceses. At present we have 8 Dioceses. Would you like to be part of an initial consultation around the future of diocesan structures in Scotland, in the form of a *Conversation in the Spirit? If so, there is a list at the back of the church today. Please put your name on it and I shall do best to facilitate a meeting.
