

Welcome to St Mary. Our Lady of Victories, Forebank Our Lady of Good Counsel, Broughty Ferry and St Andrew's Cathedral

Fourth Sunday in Eastertide
8 May 2022

Dear Friends and Parishioners,

The Paschal season moves on so swiftly! We are already we are midway through the Easter season. In our Church liturgy and life, Easter is not one day, but fifty days, a week of weeks. The joys and riches of Easter are not fully experienced in an instant, but they gradually unfold and deepen as the season's scripture and liturgy reveal the mystery. This Sunday, the fourth in the week of weeks, is often called Good Shepherd Sunday, as the Gospel this day always comes from that part of the fourth gospel where Jesus the Shepherd address his flock: The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice. I know my own and my own know me. He calls us by name, he knows who we are. Without a name, we can't even know ourselves. The name is the person! Its almost the first thing God gave man, the first thing a parent gives a child, a child gives a pet. Without a name, a deity is not a person, just a mere force, a commodity, a blank power. Our God, supremely a "person", told Moses his name; the creator who made the world called the stars by name; he is the Shepherd who loves you and knows his sheep by name.

We discovered on the Sunday after Easter, with the scene of Thomas in the room with the closed doors, that the key to resurrection faith is not so often seeing, but hearing; hearing the voice of the One who calls us by name, hearing the Word of the Risen One. When God came to earth to rescue us, he came as the Word! He spoke; he talked; he called; he made himself known through language, and he saves through the power of his Word.

The intimacy of the Gospel on this feast of the Good Shepherd reminds us that if we believe in a God who is remote, distant, unconnected to this world and to our lives, then whoever or whatever we ever we are believing in, it is not the God who revealed himself to Moses, or the God of Jesus. This God of ours is alive, present, engaged with us. The Eucharist is a Sacrament of that intimacy, a sacrifice and meal, given to us gathered together with the Lord, who graces us here and touches us with love and makes our hearts burn within us as he calls our name and draw us into his life.

Though it is often sorrow and perplexity we feel in our lives, Gethsemane, Calvary and the Triduum journey we made with the biblical characters, moving from darkness to light is an affirmation that we are on the right road. We remember that when Jesus died, his little church fell to bits in fear, through betrayal, denial, woundedness and cowardice. And yet from all that, the Spirit brought life, reconciliation, resurrection, and unity. Let us then continually lift our eyes to the wounded and risen Jesus so that he can truly be our Shepherd!

Make hospitality your special care wrote St Paul. With parish life returning to something more like normal we need to think about reviving hospitality in our parishes. With the two ordinations coming up in the Cathedral we really need to re-establish a hospitality team of people who will be willing to set up and oversee refreshments for events like these. We had many willing helpers in the past. Would you be willing to participate in this? Please let me know if so. As a start in St Mary's and Our Lady of Good Counsel, would it be good to put on tea and coffee after a weekday Mass one day a week so that those who come would have the opportunity to have some social time afterwards?
