

A very warm welcome to our parishioners and visitors today for our celebration of the Eucharist on this Trinity Sunday.

At the 9.45am Mass in Our Lady of Good Counsel this Sunday, Nathan Davidson will join us at the Table of the Lord for the first time as he makes his First Holy Communion. We welcome Nathan especially and his family and friends.

The Liturgical Cycle

Last Sunday, the Solemnity of Pentecost brought The Paschal Season to its completion. Lasting ninety days plus, this season began on Ash Wednesday, with the preparatory rites of Lent; it climaxed in the renewal of our Baptismal Promises at the Easter Vigil, opened out into what is often called fifty days of alleluias and concluded by celebrating the gift of the Holy Spirit and the Birthday of the Church at Pentecost.

Two further Sunday Solemnities are celebrated as Ordinary Time gets under way: This Sunday is Trinity Sunday, when we enter the mystery of Father, Son and Spirit in a particularly reflective way, and next Sunday is the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of the Lord, characterised in our diocese over generations as the day of the Blessed Sacrament Procession. See the note opposite regarding this year's Corpus Christi Procession.

Sometimes readers and cantors get confused as to "what Sunday it is". I always try to remember to put the details of the following Sunday underneath the date and Sunday of the day on the front page of the newsletter.

Sunday 11 June 2023
in St Andrew's Cathedral at 3pm

Please come and join us in honouring the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament next Sunday afternoon. Every procession is a symbol of our faith journey through life and on pilgrimage to the heavenly kingdom, the new Jerusalem.

A Eucharistic Procession is a powerful reminder that the Bread and wine of the Eucharist, the Body and Blood of the Lord are indeed "food for us on our journey".

For young adults aged 18-30. A modest donation of £3 is requested. Scan the WQR code on the poster on the Church notice board to book a place.

This coming Saturday 10 June we welcome to the 10am Cathedral Mass the members of the Dundee and Perth Circle of The Catenian Association as they mark their 1000th meeting since their inception. All are welcome to attend the Mass, and especially those with links to the Catenians; the names of the deceased members will be read out during the Mass and they will be remembered especially in the Eucharistic Prayer.

The music of the Mass will be led by the Cecilian Choir, who will sing the choral Mass of St Dominic, a setting often sung in the Cathedral in years past.
